A Message From the Commissioner

Dear Taxpayer:

As part of its ongoing efforts to improve customer service, the IRS is working to provide you with even more reliable and helpful assistance for the coming tax filing season. Whether it is in person or on the phone, we want to answer your questions correctly, promptly and courteously. We want to process your return quickly and accurately and make sure that more of you can file by computer and telephone and get information and forms over the Internet. To find out more about the many different services the IRS offers this tax season, see page 6 of this booklet.

Paperless filing is the wave of the future. The IRS is greatly expanding and promoting the use of electronic filing through our e-file program. You can ask a tax professional to e-file your return, or if you prefer, you can file from home using your personal computer. There are also more than 5,000 tax products, including forms, on the IRS Home Page (www.irs.ustreas.gov) that can be downloaded to your computer.

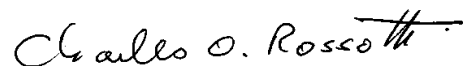

Beginning in January 1999, our phone helpline will also be open for business 24-hours-a-day/seven days a week, all year long. New technology will reduce even further hold time and allow callers to get specific information and help on, for example, the sale of a house, retirement, or job changes.

During the 1998 tax filing season, we offered more walk-in office hours at locations and times convenient to you. We will expand this option beginning in January with walk-in service on 13 Saturdays at 250 sites across the nation.

We will continue to hold Problem Solving Days every month throughout the year when taxpayers can sit down and meet face-to-face with an IRS representative to help resolve a particular problem. When and where a Problem Solving Day will be held near you can be found on the IRS Home Page at www.irs.ustreas.gov and the events are publicized in local newspapers and on radio and television.

We still have a ways to go before we can provide world class customer service but we are taking some important steps in the right direction. We have also begun a multi-year modernization of the IRS with customer service as its focus and the goal of giving America's taxpayers the services they expect and deserve.

Sincerely,

Charles O. Rossotti

Calling the IRS

If you cannot answer your question by using one of the methods listed on page 6, please call us for assistance at 1-800-829-1040. You will not be charged for the call unless your phone company charges you for local calls. This service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

If you want to check on the status of your 1998 refund, call TeleTax. See page 9 for the number.

Before You Call

IRS representatives care about the quality of the service we provide to you, our customer. You can help us provide accurate, complete answers to your questions by having the following information available.

- The tax form, schedule, or notice to which your question relates.
- The facts about your particular situation. The answer to the same question often varies from one taxpayer to another because of differences in their age, income, whether they can be claimed as a dependent, etc.
- The name of any IRS publication or other source of information that you used to look for the answer.

To maintain your account security, you may be asked for the following information, which you should also have available.

- Your social security number.
- The amount of refund and filing status shown on your tax return.
- The "Caller ID Number" shown at the top of any notice you received.
- Your personal identification number (PIN) if you have one.

- Your date of birth.
- The numbers in your street address.
- Your ZIP code.

If you are asking for an installment agreement to pay your tax, you will be asked for the highest amount you can pay each month and the date on which you can pay it.

Evaluation of Services Provided. The IRS uses several methods to evaluate the quality of this telephone service. One method is for a second IRS representative to sometimes listen in on or record telephone calls. Another is to ask some callers to complete a short survey at the end of the call.

Making the Call

Call 1-800-829-1040 (for TTY/TDD help, call 1-800-829-4059). If you have a pulse or rotary dial phone, stay on the line and one of our assisters will answer.

If you have a touch-tone phone, press 1 to enter our automated system. You can press the number for your topic as soon as you hear it. The system will direct you to the appropriate assistance.

You may not need to speak to a representative to get your answer. You can do the following within the automated system.

- Order tax forms and publications.
- Find out the status of your refund or the current amount you owe.
- Determine if we have adjusted your account or received payments you made.
- Request a transcript of your account.

Before You Hang Up

If you do not fully understand the answer you receive, or you feel our representative may not fully understand your question, our representative needs to know this. He or she will be happy to take additional time to be sure your question is answered fully.

By law, you are responsible for paying your share of Federal income tax. If we should make an error in answering your question, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax. Should this occur, however, you will not be charged any penalty.

Before You Fill In Form 1040

See How To Avoid Common Mistakes on page 45.

If you were a participant in Operation Joint Guard or Operation Joint Forge, or you were in the Persian Gulf area combat zone, see Pub. 3.

For details on these and other changes, see Pub. 553 or see What's Hot at www.irs.ustreas.gov.

What's New for 1998?

Put Your Social Security Number on Form 1040!

To protect your privacy, your social security number (SSN) is not printed on the peel-off label that came in the mail with this booklet. This means that you must now enter your SSN in the space provided on page 1 of Form 1040. If you are married filing a joint return, also enter your spouse's SSN. Be sure to list the SSNs in the same order as the first names.

If you are married filing a joint return, make sure you list the names and SSNs in the same order each year.

New Child Tax Credits

Do you have a child who was under age 17 at the end of 1998?

If so, you may be able to claim either or both of these new credits:

- The Child Tax Credit
- The Additional Child Tax Credit

The total of these credits cannot be more than $400 for each qualifying child. Figure the child tax credit first. If you have three or more qualifying children and you are not able to claim the full $400 child tax credit for each child, you may be able to claim the additional credit.

The additional child tax credit is refundable; that is, it may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax.

These credits are in addition to the child and dependent care credit and the earned income credit that you may be able to claim.

Who Is a Qualifying Child? The child must be your dependent and must meet certain other requirements. See Qualifying Child for Child Tax Credit in the instructions for line 6c, column (4), on page 19.

Caution: If the child meets those requirements, check the box in column (4) on line 6c of your return.

Where Do You Claim These Credits?

Child Tax Credit. If you have at least one qualifying child, follow the instructions on page 31 and figure the credit on the Child Tax Credit Worksheet. Do not attach this worksheet to your return. Enter the credit on Form 1040, line 43.

Additional Child Tax Credit. Use Form 8812 to figure this credit and attach it to your return. Enter the additional child tax credit on Form 1040, line 60.

Student Loan Interest Deduction

If you paid interest on a qualified student loan, you may be able to deduct up to $1,000 of the interest on line 24. See the instructions for line 24 on page 27 for details.

Education Credits

You may be able to take the Hope credit for tuition and related expenses paid for yourself, your spouse, or dependents to enroll at or attend an eligible educational institution. For qualified expenses paid after June 30, 1998, you may be able to take the lifetime learning credit. These credits are reported on line 44. The Hope credit only applies to the first 2 years of postsecondary education. Use Form 8863 to figure the credits.

Foreign Tax Credit

If you paid income tax to a foreign country, you may not have to file Form 1116 to claim the foreign tax credit on line 46. See the instructions for line 46 on page 33 for details.

Sale of Your Home

If you sold your main home in 1998 and all four of the following apply, you do not have to report the sale on your tax return.

1. No part of the home was used for business or rental purposes.
2. You (or your spouse if filing a joint return) owned and lived in the home as your main home for at least 2 years within the 5-year period ending on the date of sale.

3. You (and your spouse if filing a joint return) have not sold or exchanged another main home after May 6, 1997.

4. The selling price of the home is not over $250,000 ($500,000 if married filing a joint return and both you and your spouse lived in the home for periods adding up to at least 2 years within the 5-year period ending on the date of sale).

If all four of the conditions do not apply, see Pub. 523 to find out if you have to report the sale on your return and, if you do, how to do so.

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction

You may be able to deduct up to 45% of your health insurance. See the instructions for line 28 on page 28 for details.

Earned Income Credit (EIC)

You may be able to take this credit if you earned less than $30,095 (less than $10,030 if you do not have any qualifying children). See the instructions for lines 59a and 59b that begin on page 36.

IRA Deduction Restored for Some People Covered by Retirement Plans

You may be able to take an IRA deduction if you were covered by a retirement plan and your modified AGI (adjusted gross income) is less than: $40,000 if single, head of household, or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998; $60,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er). If you are married filing jointly and you were not covered by a plan but your spouse was, you may be able to take a deduction if the modified AGI on the joint return is less than $160,000. See the instructions for line 23 that begin on page 25.

Roth Conversion IRAs

If you converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA in 1998, you may have to file Form 8606. See Form 8606 and its instructions for details.

Penalty-Free IRA Distributions

The additional tax on an early distribution from an IRA may not apply if you paid higher education expenses for yourself, your spouse, or your children or grandchildren. The tax also may not apply if you paid expenses related to the purchase of a home by a first-time homebuyer. See Form 5329 and its instructions for details.

Estimated Tax Penalty

You generally will not owe an estimated tax penalty if the amount you owe on line 68 is less than $1,000. See the instructions for line 69 on page 45.

Credit for Federal Tax Paid on Kerosene

If you bought undyed kerosene after June 30, 1998, for heating or certain other nonhighway uses, you may be able to take a credit of 24.4 cents for each gallon. You can get a refund even if you do not owe tax. See Form 4136 for details.

Payment of Tax

If you owe tax, make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury." See the instructions for line 68 on page 44 for more details.

Standard Mileage Rates

The rate for business use of a vehicle has increased to 32.5 cents a mile. Starting this year, you can use the business mileage rate even if you lease your vehicle. For charitable contributions, the rate has increased to 14 cents a mile.

Daytime Phone Number on Form 1040

We have added a space on page 2 of Form 1040 for your daytime phone number. Providing your phone number may help speed the processing of your return if we have a question that can be answered over the phone. However, you do not have to enter your number. If you are filing a joint return, you may enter either your or your spouse's daytime phone number.

What To Look for in 1999

Child Tax Credits

The total of the child tax credit and the additional child tax credit can be as much as $500 for each qualifying child.

Student Loan Interest Deduction

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction

You may be able to deduct up to 60% of your health insurance.

IRA Deduction Allowed to More People Covered by Retirement Plans

You may be able to take an IRA deduction if you are covered by a retirement plan and your 1999 modified adjusted gross income is less than: $41,000 if single, head of household, or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1999; $61,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er).

Filing Requirements

Note: These rules apply to all U.S. citizens, regardless of where they live, and resident aliens.

Do You Have To File?

Use Chart A, B, or C to see if you must file a return. U.S. citizens who lived in or had income from a U.S. possession should see Pub. 570. Residents of Puerto Rico can use TeleTax topic 901 (see page 9) to see if they must file.

Even if you do not otherwise have to file a return, you should file one to get a refund of any Federal income tax withheld. You should also file if you are eligible for the earned income credit or the additional child tax credit.

Exception for Children Under Age 14

If you are planning to file a return for your child who was under age 14 on January 1, 1999, and certain other conditions apply, you may elect to report your child's income on your return. But you must use Form 8814 to do so. If you make this election, your child does not have to file a return. For details, use TeleTax topic 553 (see page 9) or see Form 8814.

Nonresident Aliens and Dual-Status Aliens

These rules also apply to nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens who were married to U.S. citizens or residents at the end of 1998 and who have elected to be taxed as resident aliens. Other nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens have different filing requirements. They may have to file Form 1040NR or Form 1040NR-EZ. Specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident or nonresident alien. See Pub. 519 for details, including the rules for students and scholars who are aliens.

When Should You File?

Not later than April 15, 1999. If you file after this date, you may have to pay penalties and interest. See page 48.

Chart A—For Most People

IF your filing status is . . .	AND at the end of 1998 you were* . . .	THEN file a return if your gross income was at least . . .

Married filing separately	any age	$2,700
Head of household (see page 18)	under 65 65 or older	$8,950 10,000
Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child (see page 18)	under 65 65 or older	$9,800 10,650

* If you turned age 65 on January 1, 1999, you are considered to be age 65 at the end of 1998.

 Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that is not exempt from tax including any income from sources outside the United States (even if you may exclude part or all of it). Do not include social security benefits unless you are married filing a separate return and you lived with your spouse at any time in 1998.

 If you did not live with your spouse at the end of 1998 (or on the date your spouse died) and your gross income was at least $2,700, you must file a return regardless of your age.

What if You Cannot File on Time?

You can get an automatic 4-month extension by filing Form 4868 with the IRS by April 15, 1999.

Caution: Form 4868 does not extend the time to pay your income tax. See Form 4868.

But if you are a U.S. citizen or resident, you may qualify for an automatic extension of time to file without filing Form 4868, if, on the due date of your return, you meet one of the following conditions:

- You live outside the United States and Puerto Rico, AND your main place of business or post of duty is outside the United States and Puerto Rico.
- You are in military or naval service on duty outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

This extension gives you an extra 2 months to file and pay the tax, but interest will be charged from the original due date of the return on any unpaid tax. You must attach a statement to your return showing that you meet the requirements.

Where Do You File?

See the back cover of this booklet for filing instructions and addresses. For details on using a private delivery service to mail your return or payment, see page 17.

Private Delivery Services

You can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing as timely filing/paying" rule for tax returns and payments. The IRS publishes a list of the designated private delivery services in September of each year. The list published in September 1998 includes only the following:

- Airborne Express (Airborne): Overnight Air Express Service, Next Afternoon Service, and Second Day Service.
- DHL Worldwide Express (DHL): DHL "Same Day" Service, and DHL USA Overnight.
- Federal Express (FedEx): FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, and FedEx 2Day.
- United Parcel Service (UPS): UPS Next Day Air, UPS Next Day Air Saver, UPS 2nd Day Air, and UPS 2nd Day Air A.M.

The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of the mailing date.

Line Instructions for Form 1040

Name and Address

Use the Peel-Off Label

Using your peel-off name and address label in this booklet will speed the processing of your return. It also prevents common errors that can delay refunds or result in unnecessary notices. Attach the label to your return after you have finished it. Cross out any errors and print the correct information. Add any missing items, such as your apartment number.

Address Change

If the address on your peel-off label is not your current address, cross out your old address and print your new address. If you plan to move after filing your return, see page 46.

Name Change

If you changed your name, be sure to report the change to your local Social Security Administration office before filing your return. This prevents delays in processing your return and issuing refunds. It also safeguards your future social security benefits. If you received a peel-off label, cross out your former name and print your new name.

What If You Do Not Have a Label?

Print or type the information in the spaces provided. If you are married filing a separate return, enter your husband's or wife's name on line 3 instead of below your name.

If you filed a joint return for 1997 and you are filing a joint return for 1998 with the same spouse, be sure to enter your names and SSNs in the same order as on your 1997 return.

P.O. Box

Enter your box number instead of your street address only if your post office does not deliver mail to your home.

Foreign Address

Enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Please do not abbreviate the country name.

Death of a Taxpayer

See page 46.

Social Security Number (SSN)

An incorrect or missing SSN may increase your tax or reduce your refund. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5 from your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office or call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. Fill in Form SS-5 and return it to the SSA. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get an SSN.

Check that your SSN is correct on your Forms W-2 and 1099. See page 46 for more details.

IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ITINs) for Aliens

The IRS will issue you an ITIN if you are a nonresident or resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN. To apply for an ITIN, file Form W-7 with the IRS. It usually takes about 30 days to get an ITIN. Enter your ITIN wherever your SSN is requested on your tax return.

Note: An ITIN is for tax use only. It does not entitle you to social security benefits or change your employment or immigration status under U.S. law.

Nonresident Alien Spouse

If your spouse is a nonresident alien and you file a joint or separate return, your spouse must have either an SSN or an ITIN.

Presidential Election Campaign Fund

This fund helps pay for Presidential election campaigns. The fund reduces candidates' dependence on large contributions from individuals and groups and places candidates on an equal financial footing in the general election. If you want $3 to go to this fund, check the "Yes" box. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse may also have $3 go to the fund. If you check "Yes," your tax or refund will not change.

Filing Status

Check only the filing status that applies to you. The ones that will usually give you the lowest tax are listed last.

- Married filing separately.
- Single.

• Head of household. This status is for unmarried people who paid over half the cost of keeping up a home for a qualifying person, such as a child or parent. Certain married people who lived apart from their spouse for the last 6 months of 1998 may also be able to use this status.

• Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) with dependent child. The Qualifying widow(er) status is for certain people whose spouse died in 1996 or 1997 and who had a child living with them whom they can claim as a dependent.

Joint and Several Tax Liability. If you file a joint return, both you and your spouse are generally responsible for the tax and any interest or penalties due on the return. This means that if one spouse does not pay the tax due, the other may have to. However, see Innocent Spouse Relief on page 46.

More than one filing status may apply to you. Choose the one that will give you the lowest tax. If you are not sure about your filing status, use TeleTax topic 353 (see page 9) or see Pub. 501.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Exemptions

You usually can deduct $2,700 on line 38 for each exemption you can take.

Line 6b

Spouse

Check the box on line 6b if you file either (1) a joint return, or (2) a separate return and your spouse had no income and is not filing a return. However, do not check the box if your spouse can be claimed as a dependent on another person's return.

Line 6c

Dependents

You can take an exemption for each of your dependents. The following is a brief description of the five tests that must be met for a person to qualify as your dependent. If you have more than six dependents, attach a statement to your return with the required information.

Relationship Test. The person must be either your relative or have lived in your home as a family member all year. If the person is not your relative, the relationship must not violate local law.

Joint Return Test. If the person is married, he or she cannot file a joint return. But the person can file a joint return if the return is filed only as a claim for refund and no tax liability would exist for either spouse if they had filed separate returns.

Citizen or Resident Test. The person must be a U.S. citizen or resident alien, or a resident of Canada or Mexico. There is an exception for certain adopted children. To find out who is a resident alien, use TeleTax topic 851 (see page 9) or see Pub. 519.

Income Test. The person's gross income must be less than $2,700. But your child's gross income can be $2,700 or more if he or she was either under age 19 at the end of 1998 or under age 24 at the end of 1998 and was a student.

Support Test. You must have provided over half of the person's total support in 1998. But there are two exceptions to this test: one for children of divorced or separated parents and one for persons supported by two or more taxpayers.

For more details about the tests, including any exceptions that apply, see Pub. 501.

Line 6c, Column (2)

You must enter each dependent's social security number (SSN). If you do not enter the correct SSN, at the time we process your return, we may disallow the exemption claimed for the dependent and reduce or disallow any other tax benefits (such as the child tax credit and the earned income credit) based on the dependent.

For details on how your dependent can get an SSN, see page 18. If your dependent will not have an SSN by April 15, 1999, see What if You Cannot File on Time? on page 14.

If your dependent child was born and died in 1998 and you do not have an SSN for the child, you may attach a copy of the child's birth certificate instead and enter "DIED" in column (2).

Adoption Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ATINs). If you have a dependent who was placed with you by an authorized placement agency and you do not know his or her SSN, you must get an ATIN for the dependent from the IRS. See Form W-7A for details.

Line 6c, Column (4)

Check the box in this column if your dependent is a qualifying child for the child tax credit (defined below). If you have at least one qualifying child, you may be able to take the child tax credit on line 43.

Qualifying Child for Child Tax Credit. A qualifying child for purposes of the child tax credit is a child who:

- Is claimed as your dependent on line 6c, and
- Was under age 17 at the end of 1998, and
- Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and

- Is a United States citizen or resident alien.

Note: The above requirements are not the same as the requirements to be a qualifying child for the earned income credit.

A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

A grandchild is any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child and includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child and who lived with you for all of 1998. A child who was born or died in 1998 is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1998.

Children Who Did Not Live With You Due to Divorce or Separation

If you are claiming a child who did not live with you under the rules in Pub. 501 for children of divorced or separated parents, attach Form 8332 or similar statement to your return. But see Exception below. If your divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and it states you can claim the child as your dependent without regard to any condition, such as payment of support, you may attach a copy of the following pages from the decree or agreement instead.

1. Cover page (put the other parent's SSN on that page),
2. The page that states you can claim the child as your dependent, and
3. Signature page with the other parent's signature and date of agreement.

Note: You must attach the required information even if you filed it in an earlier year.

Exception. You do not have to attach Form 8332 or similar statement if your divorce decree or written separation agreement went into effect before 1985 and it states that you can claim the child as your dependent.

Other Dependent Children

Include the total number of children who did not live with you for reasons other than divorce or separation on the line labeled "Dependents on 6c not entered above." Include dependent children who lived in Canada or Mexico during 1998.

Income

Foreign-Source Income

You must report unearned income, such as interest, dividends, and pensions, from sources outside the United States unless exempt by law or a tax treaty. You must also report earned income, such as wages and tips, from sources outside the United States.

If you worked abroad, you may be able to exclude part or all of your earned income. For details, see Pub. 54 and Form 2555 or 2555-EZ.

Community Property States

Community property states are Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, and Wisconsin. If you and your spouse lived in a community property state, you must usually follow state law to determine what is community income and what is separate income. For details, see Pub. 555.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

To round off cents to the nearest whole dollar on your forms and schedules, drop amounts under 50 cents and increase amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar. If you do round off, do so for all amounts. But if you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding and only round off the total.

Line 7

Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc.

Enter the total of your wages, salaries, tips, etc. If a joint return, also include your spouse's income. For most people, the amount to enter on this line should be shown in box 1 of their Forms W-2. But the following types of income must also be included in the total on line 7.

- Wages received as a household employee for which you did not receive a W-2 form because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1998.

- Tip income you did not report to your employer. Also include allocated tips shown on your W-2 form(s) unless you can prove that you received less. Allocated tips should be shown in box 8 of your W-2 form(s). They are not included as income in box 1. See Pub. 531 for more details.

Caution: You may owe social security and Medicare tax on unreported or allocated tips. See the instructions for line 52 on page 35.

- Dependent care benefits, which should be shown in box 10 of your W-2 form(s). But first complete Form 2441 to see if you may exclude part or all of the benefits.

- Employer-provided adoption benefits, which should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form(s) with code T. But first complete Form 8839 to see if you may exclude part or all of the benefits.

- Scholarship and fellowship grants not reported on a W-2 form. Also, enter "SCH" and the amount on the dotted line next to line 7. Exception. If you were a degree candidate, include on line 7 only the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and course-related expenses. For example, amounts used for room, board, and travel must be reported on line 7.

- Excess salary deferrals. The amount deferred should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form and the "Deferred compensation" box in box 15 should be checked. If the total amount you (or your spouse if filing jointly) deferred for 1998 under all plans was more than $10,000, include the excess on line 7. But a different limit may apply if amounts were deferred under a tax-sheltered annuity plan or an eligible plan of a state or local government or tax-exempt organization. See Pub. 575 for details.

Caution: You may not deduct the amount deferred. It is not included as income in box 1 of your W-2 form.

- Disability pensions shown on Form 1099-R if you have not reached the minimum retirement age set by your employer. Disability pensions received after you reach that age and other pensions shown on Form 1099-R (other than payments from an IRA*) are reported on lines 16a and 16b.

- Corrective distributions shown on Form 1099-R of (1) excess salary deferrals and (2) excess contributions to a retirement plan. But do not include distributions from an IRA* on line 7. Instead, report them on lines 15a and 15b.

*This includes a Roth, SEP, SIMPLE, or education IRA.

Were You a Statutory Employee?

If you were, the "statutory employee" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked. Statutory employees include full-time life insurance salespeople, certain agent or commission drivers and traveling salespeople, and certain homeworkers. If you have related business expenses to deduct, report the amount shown in box 1 of your W-2 form on Schedule C or C-EZ along with your expenses.

Missing or Incorrect Form W-2?

If you do not get a W-2 form from your employer by February 1, 1999, use Tele-Tax topic 154 (see page 9) to find out what to do. Even if you do not get a W-2, you must still report your earnings on line 7. If you lose your Form W-2 or it is incorrect, ask your employer for a new one.

Line 8a

Taxable Interest

Each payer should send you a Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID. Report all of your taxable interest income on line 8a. But you must fill in and attach Schedule B if the total is over $400 or any of the other conditions listed at the beginning of the Schedule B instructions (see page B-1) apply to you.

Interest credited in 1998 on deposits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution may not have to be included in your 1998 income. For details, see Pub. 550.

 If you get a 1998 Form 1099-INT for U.S. savings bond interest that includes amounts you reported before 1998, see Pub. 550.

Line 8b

Tax-Exempt Interest

If you received any tax-exempt interest, such as from municipal bonds, report it on line 8b. Include any exempt-interest dividends from a mutual fund or other regulated investment company. Do not include interest earned on your IRA.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Line 9

Ordinary Dividends

Each payer should send you a Form 1099-DIV. You must fill in and attach Schedule B if your total ordinary dividends are over $400 or you received, as a nominee, dividends that actually belong to someone else. If you do not have to fill in Schedule B, include on line 9 only ordinary dividends.

Capital Gain Distributions

If you received any capital gain distributions, report them on Schedule D, line 13.

Nontaxable Distributions

Some distributions are nontaxable because they are a return of your cost. They will not be taxed until you recover your cost. You must reduce your cost (or other basis) by these distributions. After you get back all of your cost (or other basis), you must report these distributions as capital gains. For details, see Pub. 550.

Dividends on insurance policies are a partial return of the premiums you paid. Do not report them as dividends. Include them in income only if they exceed the total of all net premiums you paid for the contract.

Line 10

Taxable Refunds, Credits, or Offsets of State and Local Income Taxes

None of your refund is taxable if, in the year you paid the tax, you did not itemize deductions.

If you received a refund, credit, or offset of state or local income taxes in 1998, you may receive a Form 1099-G. If you chose to apply part or all of the refund to your 1998 estimated state or local income tax, the amount applied is treated as received in 1998. If the refund was for a tax you paid in 1997 and you itemized deductions for 1997, use the worksheet on this page to see if any of your refund is taxable.

Exceptions

See Recoveries in Pub. 525 instead of using the worksheet if any of the following applies:

- You received a refund in 1998 that is for a tax year other than 1997.
- You received a refund other than an income tax refund, such as a real property tax refund, in 1998 of an amount deducted or credit claimed in an earlier year.
- Your 1997 taxable income was less than zero.
- You made your last payment of 1997 estimated state or local income tax in 1998.
- You owed alternative minimum tax in 1997.
- You could not deduct the full amount of credits you were entitled to in 1997 because the total credits exceeded the tax shown on your 1997 Form 1040, line 39.

- You could be claimed as a dependent by someone else in 1997.

Also, see Tax Benefit Rule in Pub. 525 instead of using the worksheet if all three of the following apply.

1. You had to use the Itemized Deductions Worksheet in the 1997 Schedule A instructions because your 1997 adjusted gross income was over $121,200 (over $60,600 if married filing separately).
2. You could not deduct all of the amount on line 1 of the 1997 Itemized Deductions Worksheet.
3. The amount on line 8 of that 1997 worksheet would be more than the amount on line 4 of that worksheet if the amount on line 4 were reduced by 80% of the refund you received in 1998.

State and Local Income Tax Refund Worksheet—Line 10 (keep for your records)

1. Enter the income tax refund from Form(s) 1099-G (or similar statement). But do not enter more than the amount on your 1997 Schedule A (Form 1040), line 5	1.	<input type="text"/>
2. Enter your total allowable itemized deductions from your 1997 Schedule A (Form 1040), line 28	2.	<input type="text"/>
Note: If the filing status on your 1997 Form 1040 was married filing separately and your spouse itemized deductions in 1997, skip lines 3, 4, and 5 and enter the amount from line 2 on line 6.
3. Enter on line 3 the amount shown below for the filing status claimed on your 1997 Form 1040:	3.	<input type="text"/>
• Single, enter $4,150	}
• Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er), enter $6,900
• Married filing separately, enter $3,450
• Head of household, enter $6,050
4. Did you fill in line 34a on your 1997 Form 1040? No. Enter -0-. Yes. Multiply the number on line 34a of your 1997 Form 1040 by: $800 if your 1997 filing status was married filing jointly or separately or qualifying widow(er); $1,000 if your 1997 filing status was single or head of household.		4.
5. Add lines 3 and 4	5.	<input type="text"/>
6. Subtract line 5 from line 2. If zero or less, enter -0-	6.	<input type="text"/>
7. Taxable part of your refund. Enter the smaller of line 1 or line 6 here and on Form 1040, line 10	7.	<input type="text"/>

Line 11

Alimony Received

Enter amounts received as alimony or separate maintenance. You must let the person who made the payments know your social security number. If you do not, you may have to pay a $50 penalty. For more details, use TeleTax topic 406 (see page 9) or see Pub. 504.

Line 12

Business Income or (Loss)

If you operated a business or practiced your profession as a sole proprietor, report your income and expenses on Schedule C or C-EZ.

Line 13

Capital Gain or (Loss)

If you had a capital gain or loss, including any capital gain distributions from a mutual fund, you must complete Schedule D.

Line 14

Other Gains or (Losses)

If you sold or exchanged assets used in a trade or business, see the instructions for Form 4797.

Lines 15a and 15b

IRA Distributions

You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount of the distribution from your individual retirement arrangement (IRA). Unless otherwise noted in the line 15a and 15b instructions, an IRA includes a traditional IRA, Roth IRA, education (Ed) IRA, simplified employee pension (SEP) IRA, and a savings incentive match plan for employees (SIMPLE) IRA. Leave line 15a blank and enter the total distribution on line 15b.

Exception. Do not enter your total IRA distribution on line 15b if any of the following applies.

1. You made nondeductible contributions to any of your traditional or SEP IRAs for 1998 or an earlier year. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 15b; enter the total distribution on line 15a. If you made nonde-ductible contributions to these IRAs for 1998, also see Pub. 590.

2. You converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 15b; enter the total distribution on line 15a.

3. You made an excess contribution in 1998 to your IRA and withdrew it during the period of January 1, 1999, through April 15, 1999. Enter the total distribution on line 15a and the taxable part (the earnings) on line 15b.

4. You received a distribution from an Ed or Roth IRA and the total distribution was not rolled over into another IRA of the same type. Instead, use Form 8606 to figure the amount to enter on line 15b; enter the total distribution on line 15a.

5. You rolled your IRA distribution over into another IRA of the same type (for example, from one traditional IRA to another traditional IRA). Enter the total distribution on line 15a and write "Roll-over" next to line 15b. If the total on line 15a was rolled over, enter zero on line 15b. If the total was not rolled over, enter the part not rolled over on line 15b. But if 1 above also applies, use Form 8606 to figure the taxable part.

If you rolled over the distribution (a) in 1999 or (b) from a conduit IRA into a qualified plan, attach a statement explaining what you did.

Caution: You may have to pay an additional tax if (1) you received an early distribution from your IRA and the total distribution was not rolled over, or (2) you were born before July 1, 1927, and received less than the minimum required distribution. See the instructions for line 53 on page 35 for details.

Lines 16a and 16b

Pensions and Annuities

You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the amount of your pension and annuity payments. See page 24 for details on rollovers and lump-sum distributions. Do not include the following payments on lines 16a and 16b. Instead, report them on line 7.

- Disability pensions received before you reach the minimum retirement age set by your employer.

- Corrective distributions of excess salary deferrals or excess contributions to retirement plans.

Attach Form 1099-R to Form 1040 if any Federal income tax was withheld.

Fully Taxable Pensions and Annuities

If your pension or annuity is fully taxable, enter it on line 16b; do not make an entry on line 16a. Your payments are fully taxable if either of the following applies:

1. You did not contribute to the cost (see page 23) of your pension or annuity, or

2. You got your entire cost back tax free before 1998.

Fully taxable pensions and annuities also include military retirement pay shown on Form 1099-R. For details on military disability pensions, see Pub. 525. If you received a Form RRB-1099-R, see Pub. 575 to find out how to report your benefits.

Partially Taxable Pensions and Annuities

If your pension or annuity is partially taxable and your Form 1099-R does not show the taxable part, you must use the General Rule to figure the taxable part. The General Rule is explained in Pub. 939. However, if your annuity starting date (defined below) was after July 1, 1986, you may be able to use the Simplified Method explained below. But if your annuity starting date was after November 18, 1996, and items 1, 2, and 3 under Simplified Method apply, you must use the Simplified Method to figure the taxable part.

You can ask the IRS to figure the taxable part for you for a $80 fee. For details, see Pub. 939.

If your Form 1099-R shows a taxable amount, you may report that amount on line 16b. But you may be able to report a lower taxable amount by using the General Rule or the Simplified Method.

Once you have figured the taxable part of your pension or annuity, enter that amount on line 16b and the total on line 16a.

Annuity Starting Date

Your annuity starting date is the later of the first day of the first period for which you received a payment, or the date the plan's obligations became fixed.

Simplified Method

If your annuity starting date (defined above) was after July 1, 1986, and all three of the following apply, you can use this simpler method. But if your annuity starting date was after November 18, 1996, and all three of the following apply, you must use the Simplified Method.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

1. The payments are for (a) your life or (b) your life and that of your beneficiary.

2. The payments are from a qualified employee plan, a qualified employee annuity, or a tax-sheltered annuity.

3. At the time the pension or annuity payments began, either you were under age 75 or the number of years of guaranteed payments was fewer than 5. See Pub. 575 for the definition of guaranteed payments.

If all three apply, use the worksheet on this page to figure the taxable part of your pension or annuity. For more details on the Simplified Method, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721 for U.S. Civil Service retirement.

Caution: If you received U.S. Civil Service retirement benefits and you chose the lump-sum credit option, use the worksheet in Pub. 721. Do not use the worksheet on this page.

Age (or Combined Ages) at Annuity Starting Date

If you are the retiree, use your age on the annuity starting date. If you are the survivor of a retiree, use the retiree's age on his or her annuity starting date. But if your annuity starting date was after 1997 and the payments are for your life and that of your beneficiary, use your combined ages on the annuity starting date.

If you are the beneficiary of an employee who died, see Pub. 575. If there is more than one beneficiary, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721 to figure each beneficiary's taxable amount.

Changing Methods

If your annuity starting date was after July 1, 1986, and before November 19, 1996, you may be able to change from the General Rule to the Simplified Method (or the other way around). For details, see Pub. 575 or Pub. 721.

Cost

Your cost is generally your net investment in the plan as of the annuity starting date. It should be shown in box 9b of Form 1099-R for the first year you received payments from the plan.

Simplified Method Worksheet—Lines 16a and 16b
(keep for your records)

Note: If you had more than one partially taxable pension or annuity, figure the taxable part of each separately. Enter the total of the taxable parts on Form 1040, line 16b. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received in 1998 on Form 1040, line 16a.

1. Enter the total pension or annuity payments received this year. Also, enter this amount on Form 1040, line 16a	1.	<input type="text"/>
2. Enter your cost in the plan at the annuity starting date plus any death benefit exclusion (see the next page)	2.	<input type="text"/>
3. Enter the appropriate number from Table 1 below. But if your annuity starting date was after 1997 and the payments are for your life and that of your beneficiary, enter the appropriate number from Table 2 below	3.	<input type="text"/>
4. Divide line 2 by the number on line 3	4.	<input type="text"/>
5. Multiply line 4 by the number of months for which this year's payments were made. If your annuity starting date was before 1987 , skip lines 6 and 7 and enter this amount on line 8. Otherwise, go to line 6	5.	<input type="text"/>
6. Enter the amount, if any, recovered tax free in years after 1986	6.	<input type="text"/>
7. Subtract line 6 from line 2	7.	<input type="text"/>
8. Enter the smaller of line 5 or line 7	8.	<input type="text"/>
9. Taxable amount. Subtract line 8 from line 1. Enter the result, but not less than zero. Also, enter this amount on Form 1040, line 16b. If your Form 1099-R shows a larger amount, use the amount on this line instead of the amount from Form 1099-R.	9.	<input type="text"/>

Death Benefit Exclusion. If you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee or former employee who died before August 21, 1996, amounts paid to you by, or on behalf of, an employer because of the death of the employee may qualify for a death benefit exclusion of up to $5,000. If you are entitled to this exclusion, add it to the amount you enter on line 2 of the worksheet on the previous page. Do this even if the Form 1099-R shows a taxable amount. The payer of the annuity cannot add the death benefit exclusion to your cost when figuring the taxable amount. Special rules apply if you are the survivor under a joint and survivor's annuity. For details, see Pub. 575.

Rollovers

A rollover is a tax-free distribution of cash or other assets from one retirement plan that is contributed to another plan. Use lines 16a and 16b to report a rollover, including a direct rollover, from one qualified employer's plan to another or to an IRA or SEP.

Enter on line 16a the total distribution before income tax or other deductions were withheld. This amount should be shown in box 1 of Form 1099-R. From the total on line 16a, subtract any contributions (usually shown in box 5) that were taxable to you when made. From that result, subtract the amount that was rolled over either directly or within 60 days of receiving the distribution. Enter the remaining amount, even if zero, on line 16b. Also, enter "Rollover" next to line 16b.

Special rules apply to partial rollovers of property. For more details on rollovers, including distributions under qualified domestic relations orders, see Pub. 575.

Lump-Sum Distributions

If you received a lump-sum distribution from a profit-sharing or retirement plan, your Form 1099-R should have the "Total distribution" box in box 2b checked. You may owe an additional tax if you received an early distribution from a qualified retirement plan and the total amount was not rolled over. For details, see the instructions for line 53 on page 35.

Enter the total distribution on line 16a and the taxable part on line 16b.

You may be able to pay less tax on the distribution if you were at least age 59½ on the date of the distribution, you meet certain other conditions, and you choose to use Form 4972 to figure the tax on any part of the distribution. You may also be able to use Form 4972 if you are the beneficiary of a deceased employee who was either age 59½ or older on the date of death or was born before 1936. For details, see Form 4972.

Line 19

Unemployment Compensation

You should receive a Form 1099-G showing the total unemployment compensation paid to you in 1998.

If you received an overpayment of unemployment compensation in 1998 and you repaid any of it in 1998, subtract the amount you repaid from the total amount you received. Enter the result on line 19. Also, enter "Repaid" and the amount you repaid on the dotted line next to line 19. If, in 1998, you repaid unemployment compensation that you included in gross income in an earlier year, you may deduct the amount repaid on Schedule A, line 22. But if you repaid more than $3,000, see Repayments in Pub. 525 for details on how to report the repayment.

Lines 20a and 20b

Social Security Benefits

You should receive a Form SSA-1099 showing in box 3 the total social security benefits paid to you. Box 4 will show the amount of any benefits you repaid in 1998. If you received railroad retirement benefits treated as social security, you should receive a Form RRB-1099.

To find out if any of your benefits are taxable, you will first need to complete Form 1040, lines 21, 23, and 25 through 31a, and figure any amount to be entered on the dotted line next to line 32. Then, complete the worksheet on the next page. However, do not use the worksheet if any of the following apply.

- You made contributions to a traditional IRA for 1998 and you were covered by a retirement plan at work or through self-employment. Instead, use the worksheets in Pub. 590 to see if any of your social security benefits are taxable and to figure your IRA deduction.

- You repaid any benefits in 1998 and your total repayments (box 4) were more than your total benefits for 1998 (box 3). None of your benefits are taxable for 1998. In addition, you may be able to take an itemized deduction for part of the excess repayments if they were for benefits you included in gross income in an earlier year. For more details, see Pub. 915.

- You file Form 2555, 2555-EZ, 4563, or 8815, or you exclude employer-provided adoption benefits or income from sources within Puerto Rico. Instead, use the worksheet in Pub. 915.

Line 21

Other Income

Use this line to report any other income not reported on your return or other schedules. See examples below. List the type and amount of income. If necessary, show the required information on an attached statement. For more details, see Miscellaneous Taxable Income in Pub. 525.

Do not report any nontaxable income on line 21, such as child support; money or property that was inherited, willed to you, or received as a gift; or life insurance proceeds received because of a person's death.*

Do not report on this line any income from self-employment or fees received as a notary public. Instead, you must use Schedule C, C-EZ, or F, even if you do not have any business expenses.

Examples of income to report on line 21 are:

- Prizes and awards.
- Gambling winnings, including lotteries, raffles, etc. For details on gambling losses, see the instructions for Schedule A, line 27, on page A-6.
- Jury duty fees. Also, see the instructions for line 32 on page 28.
- Alaska Permanent Fund dividends.
- Reimbursements or other amounts received for items deducted in an earlier year, such as medical expenses, real estate taxes, or home mortgage interest. See Recoveries in Pub. 525 for details on how to figure the amount to report.
- Income from the rental of personal property if you engaged in the rental for profit but were not in the business of renting such property. Also, see the instructions for line 32 on page 28.
- Income from an activity not engaged in for profit. See Pub. 535.
- Loss on certain corrective distributions of excess deferrals. See Pub. 575.

Adjusted Gross Income

Line 23

IRA Deduction

TIP If you make any nondeductible contributions to a traditional IRA for 1998, you must report them on Form 8606.

If you made contributions to a traditional individual retirement arrangement (IRA) for 1998, you may be able to take an IRA deduction. But you must have had earned income to do so. For IRA purposes, earned income includes certain alimony received. See Pub. 590 for details. You should receive a statement by June 1, 1999, that shows all contributions to your traditional IRA for 1998.

Use the worksheet on the next page to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction. But read the following list before you fill in the worksheet.

- If you were age 70½ or older at the end of 1998, you cannot deduct any contributions made to your traditional IRA for 1998 or treat them as nondeductible contributions.
- You cannot deduct contributions to a Roth IRA or an education IRA.

Caution: If you made contributions to both a traditional IRA and a Roth IRA for 1998, do not use the worksheet on the next page. Instead, use the worksheet in Pub. 590 to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction.

- You cannot deduct contributions to a 401(k) plan, SIMPLE plan, or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan. These amounts are not included as income in box 1 of your W-2 form.
- You will first need to complete Form 1040, lines 25 through 31a, and figure any amount to be entered on the dotted line next to line 32.
- If you made contributions to your IRA in 1998 that you deducted for 1997, do not include them in the worksheet.
- If you received a distribution from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or section 457 plan that is included in box 1 of your W-2 form, do not include that distribution on line 8 of the worksheet. The distribution should be shown in box 11 of your W-2 form.

- You must file a joint return to deduct contributions to your spouse's IRA. Enter the total IRA deduction for you and your spouse on line 23.

- Do not include rollover contributions in figuring your deduction. Instead, see the instructions for lines 15a and 15b on page 22.

- Do not include trustee's fees that were billed separately and paid by you for your IRA. These fees can be deducted only as an itemized deduction on Schedule A.

- If the total of your IRA deduction on Form 1040 plus any nondeductible contribution to your traditional IRAs shown on Form 8606 is less than your total traditional IRA contributions for 1998, see Pub. 590 for special rules.

By April 1 of the year after the year in which you turn age 70½, you must start taking minimum required distributions from your traditional IRA. If you do not, you may have to pay a 50% additional tax on the amount that should have been distributed. For details, including how to figure the minimum required distribution, see Pub. 590.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Were You Covered by a Retirement Plan?

If you were covered by a retirement plan (qualified pension, profit-sharing (including 401(k)), annuity, Keogh, SEP, SIMPLE, etc.) at work or through self-employment, your IRA deduction may be reduced or eliminated. But you can still make contributions to an IRA even if you cannot deduct them. In any case, the income earned on your IRA contributions is not taxed until it is paid to you.

The "Pension plan" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked if you were covered by a plan at work even if you were not vested in the plan. You are also covered by a plan if you were self-employed and had a Keogh, SEP, or SIMPLE retirement plan.

If you were covered by a retirement plan and you file Form 2555, 2555-EZ, or 8815, or you exclude employer-provided adoption benefits, see Pub. 590 to figure the amount, if any, of your IRA deduction.

Married Persons Filing Separately. If you were not covered by a retirement plan but your spouse was, you are considered covered by a plan unless you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1998.

Line 24

Student Loan Interest Deduction

You may take this deduction if all five of the following apply.

1. You paid interest in 1998 on a qualified student loan (see this page).
2. At least part of the interest paid in 1998 was paid during the first 60 months that payments were required to be made. See Example on this page.
3. Your filing status is any status except married filing separately.
4. Your modified adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than: $55,000 if single, head of household, or qualifying widow(er); $75,000 if married filing jointly. Most people can use lines 3 through 5 of the worksheet on this page to figure their modified AGI.
5. You are not claimed as a dependent on someone's (such as your parent's) 1998 tax return.

If all five apply, use the worksheet on this page to figure your deduction. But first you will need to complete Form 1040, lines 25 through 31a, and figure any amount to be entered on the dotted line next to line 32.

Example. You took out a qualified student loan in 1991 while in college. You had 6 years to repay the loan and your first monthly payment was due July 1993, after you graduated. You made a payment every month as required. If you meet items 3 through 5 listed earlier, you may use only the interest you paid for January through June 1998 to figure your deduction. June is the end of the 60-month period (July 1993–June 1998).

Qualified Student Loan. This is any loan you took out to pay the qualified higher education expenses for yourself, your spouse, or anyone who was your dependent when the loan was taken out. The person for whom the expenses were paid must have been an eligible student (see the next page). However, a loan is not a qualified student loan if (1) any of the proceeds were used for other purposes or (2) the loan was from either a related person or a person who borrowed the proceeds under a qualified employer plan or a contract purchased under such a plan. To find out who is a related person, see Pub. 970.

Qualified higher education expenses generally include tuition, fees, room and board, and related expenses such as books and supplies. The expenses must be for education in a degree, certificate, or similar program at an eligible educational institution. An eligible educational institution includes most colleges, universities, and certain vocational schools. You must reduce the expenses by the following nontaxable benefits:

- Employer-provided educational assistance benefits that are not included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s).

8. Divide line 7 by $15,000. Enter the result as a decimal (rounded to at least three places)	8.	<input type="text"/>
9. Multiply line 2 by line 8	9.	<input type="text"/>
10. Student loan interest deduction. Subtract line 9 from line 2. Enter the result here and on Form 1040, line 24. Do not include this amount in figuring any other deduction on your return (such as on Schedule A, C, E, etc.)	10.	<input type="text"/>

- Excludable U.S. series EE savings bond interest from Form 8815.
- Qualified distributions from an education IRA.
- Any scholarship, educational assistance allowance, or other payment (but not gifts, inheritances, etc.) excluded from income.

For more details on these expenses, see Pub. 970.

An eligible student is a person who:

- Was enrolled in a degree, certificate, or other program (including a program of study abroad that was approved for credit by the institution at which the student was enrolled) leading to a recognized educational credential at an eligible educational institution, and
- Carried at least half the normal full-time work load for the course of study he or she was pursuing.

Line 25

Medical Savings Account Deduction

If you made contributions to a medical savings account for 1998, you may be able to take this deduction. See Form 8853.

Line 26

Moving Expenses

If you moved in connection with your job or business or started a new job, you may be able to take this deduction. But your new workplace must be at least 50 miles farther from your old home than your old home was from your old workplace. If you had no former workplace, your new workplace must be at least 50 miles from your old home. Use TeleTax topic 455 (see page 9) or see Form 3903.

Line 27

One-Half of Self-Employment Tax

If you were self-employed and owe self-employment tax, fill in Schedule SE to figure the amount of your deduction.

Line 28

Self-Employed Health Insurance Deduction

If you were self-employed and had a net profit for the year, or if you received wages in 1998 from an S corporation in which you were a more-than-2% shareholder, you may be able to deduct part of the amount paid for health insurance for yourself, your spouse, and dependents. The insurance plan must be established under your business. But if you were also eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by your or your spouse's employer for any month or part of a month in 1998, amounts paid for health insurance coverage for that month cannot be used to figure the deduction. For example, if you were eligible to participate in a subsidized health plan maintained by your spouse's employer from September 30 through December 31, you cannot use amounts paid for health insurance coverage for September through December to figure your deduction. For more details, see Pub. 535.

If you qualify to take the deduction, use the worksheet on this page to figure the amount you can deduct. But if any of the following apply, do not use the worksheet. Instead, see Pub. 535 to find out how to figure your deduction.

- You had more than one source of income subject to self-employment tax.
- You file Form 2555 or 2555-EZ.
- You are using amounts paid for qualified long-term care insurance to figure the deduction.

Schedule D

If you had a net capital gain on Schedule D (both lines 16 and 17 of Schedule D are gains) and the amount on Form 1040, line 39, is more than zero, use Part IV of Schedule D to figure your tax.

Line 43

Child Tax Credit

This credit is in addition to the child and dependent care credit and the earned income credit that you may be able to claim.

What Is the Child Tax Credit?

The child tax credit is a credit for people who have a qualifying child; it reduces tax people owe. The credit can be as much as $400 for each qualifying child.

Note: If the amount on Form 1040, line 40, is zero, you cannot take this credit because there is no tax to reduce. But if you have three or more qualifying children, you may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040, line 60. To find out if you can, you will need to complete the Child Tax Credit Worksheet on page 32 even though you cannot take the credit.

How Do You Figure the Credit?

Use the Child Tax Credit Worksheet on page 32 to figure the amount of your credit. If you are going to claim an education credit on Form 1040, line 44, you need to know the amount of that credit to figure your child tax credit. Complete Form 8863 and enter your education credit(s) on Form 1040, line 44.

You may also need to know the following information.

Modified adjusted gross income is the amount from Form 1040, line 34, increased by the total of any:

- Was under age 17 at the end of 1998, and
- Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
- Is a United States citizen or resident alien.

Note: The above requirements are not the same as the requirements to be a qualifying child for the earned income credit.

A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

A grandchild is any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child and includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child and who lived with you for all of 1998. A child who was born or died in 1998 is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive in 1998.

To find out who is a resident alien, use TeleTax topic 851 (see page 9) or see Pub. 519.

Caution: Make sure you checked the box in column (4) of line 6c for each qualifying child.

Additional Child Tax Credit

You may be able to take the additional child tax credit on Form 1040, line 60, if both 1 and 2 below apply.

If you fraudulently claimed the credit, you cannot claim it for the next 10 years. If your 1997 earned income credit was disallowed as the result of deficiency procedures, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to claim the credit this year.*

Social Security Number (SSN). For purposes of the EIC, an SSN means a number issued by the Social Security Administration to a U.S. citizen or to a person who has permission from the Immigration and Naturalization Service to work in the United States.

Qualifying Child

A qualifying child is a child who:

1. Is your son, daughter, adopted child, grandchild, stepchild, or foster child, and
2. Was (at the end of 1998)—
 - under age 19,
 - under age 24 and a student (see this page), or
 - any age and permanently and totally disabled (see this page), and
3. Lived with you in the United States for more than half of 1998 (for all of 1998 if a foster child). If the child did not live with you for the required time, see the Exception on this page.

Caution: The child must have an SSN (defined earlier) unless the child was born and died in 1998.

A child does not always have to be your dependent to qualify. But if the child was married or is also a qualifying child of another person (other than your spouse if filing a joint return), special rules apply. See Married Child and Qualifying Child of More Than One Person on the next page.

Example. You are divorced and have a 7-year-old son. Although you had custody of your son, he is claimed as a dependent on his other parent's 1998 tax return. Your son is your qualifying child because he meets each of the three requirements listed earlier. Your son is not a qualifying child of his other parent because he did not live with the other parent for more than half of 1998 and the Exception does not apply.

The following explains some of the terms used earlier.

- A foster child is any child you cared for as your own child. For example, if you acted as the parent of your niece or nephew, this child is considered your foster child.

- A child placed with you by an authorized placement agency for legal adoption is an adopted child even if the adoption is not final.

- A grandchild is any descendant of your son, daughter, or adopted child. For example, a grandchild includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

- A student is a child who during any 5 months of 1998—

1. Was enrolled as a full-time student at a school, or
2. Took a full-time, on-farm training course. The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.

A school includes technical, trade, and mechanical schools. It does not include on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, or night schools.

- A child is permanently and totally disabled if both of the following apply.

1. He or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition.
2. A doctor determines the condition has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year or can lead to death.

Exception. The child, including a foster child, is considered to have lived with you for all of 1998 if both of the following apply.

1. The child was born or died in 1998.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

2. Your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1998.

Temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, count as time lived at home.

Married Child

If your child was married at the end of 1998, that child is a qualifying child only if you can claim him or her as your dependent on Form 1040, line 6c. But if this child's other parent claimed him or her as a dependent under the rules in Pub. 501 for children of divorced or separated parents, this child is your qualifying child.

Qualifying Child of More Than One Person

If a child meets the conditions to be a qualifying child of more than one person, only the person who had the highest modified AGI (adjusted gross income) for 1998 may treat that child as a qualifying child. The other person(s) cannot claim the credit for people who do not have a qualifying child. If the other person is your spouse and you are filing a joint return, this rule does not apply. If you cannot take the credit because of this rule, enter "No" directly to the right of line 59a.

Example. You and your 5-year-old daughter moved in with your mother in April 1998. You are not a qualifying child of your mother. Your daughter meets the conditions to be a qualifying child for both you and your mother. Your modified AGI for 1998 was $8,000 and your mother's was $14,000. Because your mother's modified AGI was higher, your daughter is your mother's qualifying child. You cannot take any EIC, even if your mother does not claim the credit.

Investment Income

For most people, investment income is the total of the amounts on Form 1040, lines 8a, 8b, 9, and, if more than zero, line 13. But if you are filing Schedule E, you may have to include amounts reported on that schedule. See Pub. 596 for details. Also see Pub. 596 to figure your investment income if you are reporting income from the rental of personal property on Form 1040, line 21.

Questions To See If You Can Take the Earned Income Credit

All filers:

1. Is your investment income (see this page) more than $2,300?

 - No. Stop. You cannot take the credit.
 - Yes. Go to question 6.
6. Were you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 1998?

 - Yes. Go to question 9.
9. Is the total of your taxable and nontaxable earned income (see pages 38 and 39) less than $10,030? (Nontaxable earned income includes military housing and subsistence, and contributions to a 401(k) plan.)
 - No. Stop. You cannot take the credit. Enter "No" directly to the right of line 59a.
 - Yes. You can take the credit. If you want the IRS to figure it for you, enter "EIC" directly to the right of line 59a. Also, enter the amount and type of any nontaxable earned income on line 59b. If you want to figure the credit yourself, complete the worksheet on the next page.

Caution: Make sure you include all required amounts when figuring your investment income. If you do not and that income is more than $2,300, at the time we process your return, we may disallow the credit.

Modified AGI (Adjusted Gross Income)

Modified AGI is the total of the amounts on Form 1040, lines 8b and 33, increased by the amount of (1) any loss claimed on Form 1040, line 13, (2) three-fourths of any losses on Form 1040, lines 12 and 18, and (3) any nontaxable distributions from a pension, annuity, or individual retirement arrangement (IRA). But modified AGI does not include any distribution that is not taxable because it (a) was a trustee-to-trustee transfer or (b) was rolled over into a similar type of plan during the period allowed for rollovers. If you converted part or all of a traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE IRA to a Roth IRA, see Pub. 596 to figure your modified AGI. Also see Pub. 596 to figure your modified AGI if you are filing Schedule E or you are claiming a loss from the rental of personal property not used in a trade or business.

Taxable Earned Income

This usually is the amount reported on Form 1040, line 7, plus your earnings from self-employment. (Use the worksheet on page 39 to figure your earnings from self-employment.) But if line 7 of Form 1040 includes any of the following amounts, subtract them from the total on line 7. The result plus your earnings from self-employment is your taxable earned income for purposes of the EIC.

- A taxable scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported on a W-2 form.
- An amount paid to an inmate in a penal institution. Enter "PRI" and the amount subtracted on the dotted line next to line 7 of Form 1040.
- Workfare payments. These are cash payments certain families receive from a state or local agency that administers public assistance programs funded under the Federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program in return for (1) work experience activities (including work associated with remodeling or repairing publicly assisted housing) if sufficient private sector employment is not available, or (2) community service program activities. Enter "WP" and the amount subtracted on the dotted line next to line 7 of Form 1040.

Earned Income Credit Worksheet—Line 59a
(keep for your records)

Before you begin, if you were a household employee who did not receive a Form W-2 because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1998 or you were a minister or member of a religious order, see Special Rules on page 39 before completing this worksheet. Also, see Special Rules if Form 1040, line 7, includes workfare payments or any amount paid to an inmate in a penal institution.

Caution: Be sure to include all your income on lines 1, 2, 4, 5, and 8 below. An incorrect amount may increase your tax or reduce your refund.

1. Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 7	1.	<input type="text"/>
2. If you received a taxable scholarship or fellowship grant that was not reported on a W-2 form, enter that amount here	2.	<input type="text"/>

AND

If you had any nontaxable earned income (see line 4 above), enter the amount and type of that income in the spaces provided on line 59b.

AND

Complete Schedule EIC and attach it to your return ONLY if you have a qualifying child.

Note: If you owe the alternative minimum tax (Form 1040, line 51), subtract it from the amount on line 10 above. Then, enter the result (if more than zero) on Form 1040, line 59a. Also, replace the amount on line 10 above with the amount entered on Form 1040, line 59a.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Also, if line 7 of Form 1040 includes any amount paid to a household employee who did not receive a W-2 form, see Special Rules on this page.

TIP Nontaxable earned income does not include welfare benefits, such as those listed below.

- Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
- Food stamps and low-income housing.

Caution: If you include self-employment income in your earned income for purposes of figuring the credit, but you have not paid the self-employment tax on that income, we may reduce your credit by the amount of the self-employment tax not paid.

Nontaxable Earned Income

Caution: Be sure to include all your nontaxable earned income on line 59b of Form 1040.

Certain earned income is not taxable, but it must be included to see if you can take the earned income credit. It is also used to figure the credit. Nontaxable earned income includes anything of value (money, goods, or services) that is not taxable that you received from your employer for your work. But it does not include workfare payments (defined on page 38). Some examples of nontaxable earned income are listed below.

- Basic quarters and subsistence allowances, the value of in-kind quarters and subsistence, and combat zone excluded pay received from the U.S. military. These amounts should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form with code Q.

- Housing allowances or rental value of a parsonage for clergy members. But if you are filing Schedule SE, see Clergy on this page.

- Meals and lodging provided for the convenience of your employer.

- Salary deferrals. If you chose to have your employer contribute part of your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) plan, or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan) instead of having it paid to you, the "Deferred compensation" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked. The amount deferred should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form.

- Excludable dependent care benefits from Form 2441, line 18.

- Excludable employer-provided adoption benefits from Form 8839, line 29.

- Salary reductions, such as under a cafeteria plan, unless they are included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s). For details, see Pub. 596.

Effect on Certain Welfare Benefits

Any refund you receive as a result of claiming the EIC will not be used to determine if you are eligible for the following programs, or how much you can receive from them.

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (formerly Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC)).

Special Rules

Members of the Military

If you were on extended active duty outside the United States, your home is considered to be in the United States during that duty period. See Pub. 596 for the definition of extended active duty.

Line 5 of EIC Worksheet on Page 38
(keep for your records)

If filing a joint return and your spouse was also self-employed or reported income and expenses on Schedule C or C-EZ as a statutory employee, combine your spouse's amounts with yours to figure the amounts to enter below.

1. If you are filing Schedule SE:

- a. Enter the amount from Schedule SE, Section A, line 3, or Section B, line 3, whichever applies. 1a.
- b. Enter the amount, if any, from Schedule SE, Section B, line 4b 1b.
- c. Add lines 1a and 1b 1c.
- d. Enter the amount from Form 1040, line 27. 1d.
- e. Subtract line 1d from line 1c. 1e.

2. If you are NOT required to file Schedule SE (for example, because your net earnings from self-employment were less than $400), complete lines 2a through 2c. But do not include on these lines any statutory employee income or any amount exempt from self-employment tax as the result of the filing and approval of Form 4029 or Form 4361.

- a. Enter any net farm profit or (loss) from Schedule F, line 36, and farm partnerships, Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 15a 2a.
- b. Enter any net profit or (loss) from Schedule C, line 31, Schedule C-EZ, line 3, Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 15a (other than farming), and Schedule K-1 (Form 1065-B), box 9 2b.
- c. Add lines 2a and 2b. Enter the total even if a loss 2c.

3. If you are filing Schedule C or C-EZ as a statutory employee, enter the amount from line 1 of that Schedule C or C-EZ 3.

- 4. Add lines 1e, 2c, and 3. Enter the total here and on line 5 of the worksheet on page 38 even if a loss. If the result is a loss, enter it in parentheses and read the Caution below 4.

Caution: If line 5 of the Earned Income Credit Worksheet is a loss, subtract it from the total of lines 3 and 4 of that worksheet and enter the result on line 6 of that worksheet. If the result is zero or less, you cannot take the earned income credit.

1998 Earned Income Credit (EIC) Table

To find your credit: First, read down the "At least — But less than" columns and find the line that includes the amount you entered on line 6 or line 8 of the Earned Income Credit Worksheet on page 38. Next, read across to the column that includes the number of qualifying children you have. Then, enter the credit from that column on line 7 or line 9 of that worksheet, whichever applies.

Caution: This is not a tax table.

If the amount on line 6 or line 8 of the worksheet is at least $26,450 but less than $26,473, your credit is $2. Otherwise, you cannot take the credit.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Clergy

If you are filing Schedule SE and the amount on line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that was also reported on Form 1040, line 7, follow these special rules. First, enter "Clergy" directly to the right of line 59a. If you received a housing allowance or were provided housing, do not include the allowance or rental value of the parsonage as nontaxable earned income on line 4 of the worksheet on page 38 (or on line 59b of Form 1040) if it is required to be included on Schedule SE, line 2.

Then, if you are figuring the earned income credit yourself, determine how much of the income reported on Form 1040, line 7, was also reported on Schedule SE, line 2. Next, subtract that income from the amount on Form 1040, line 7. Then, enter only the result on line 1 of the worksheet on page 38. Last, be sure to complete the worksheet on page 39.

Household Employees

If you were a household employee who did not receive a W-2 form because your employer paid you less than $1,100 in 1998, be sure to include the amount you were paid on Form 1040, line 7. Enter "HSH" and the amount not reported on a W-2 form on the dotted line next to line 7.

Workfare Payments

These are not earned income for purposes of the EIC. If the total on Form 1040, line 7, includes such income, subtract that income from the amount on line 7. Enter the result on line 1 of the worksheet on page 38. Also, enter "WP" and the amount subtracted on the dotted line next to line 7 of Form 1040.

Inmates

Amounts paid to inmates in penal institutions for their work are not earned income for purposes of the EIC. If the total on Form 1040, line 7, includes such income, subtract that income from the amount on line 7. Enter the result on line 1 of the worksheet on page 38. Also, enter "PRI" and the amount subtracted on the dotted line next to line 7.

Line 60

Additional Child Tax Credit

You may be able to take this credit if both 1 and 2 below apply.

1. The amount on line 1 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet on page 32 is more than $800.

2. The amount on line 7 of the Child Tax Credit Worksheet is more than the amount on line 11 of that worksheet.

The additional child tax credit may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax. Use Form 8812 to figure the credit.

Line 61

Amount Paid With Form 4868 (Request for Extension)

If you filed Form 4868 to get an automatic extension of time to file Form 1040, enter the amount, if any, you paid with that form. Also, include any amounts paid with Form 2688 or 2350.

Line 62

Excess Social Security and RRTA Tax Withheld

If you had more than one employer for 1998 and your total wages were over $68,400, too much social security tax may have been withheld. You can take a credit on this line for the amount withheld in excess of $4,240.80. But if any one employer withheld more than $4,240.80, you must ask that employer to refund the excess to you. You cannot claim it on your return.

If you had more than one railroad employer for 1998 and your total compensation was over $50,700, too much railroad retirement (RRTA) tax may have been withheld.

For more details, see Pub. 505.

Line 63

Other Payments

Check the box(es) on line 63 to report any credit from Form 2439 or 4136.

Refund

Line 65

Amount Overpaid

If line 65 is under $1, we will send a refund only on written request. If you want to check on the status of your refund, please wait at least 4 weeks after you file your return to do so. See page 9 for details.

If the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to decrease the amount of income tax withheld from your pay.

See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1999 on page 46.

Refund Offset

If you have not paid child support or certain Federal nontax debts, such as student loans, all or part of the overpayment on line 65 may be used (offset) to pay the past-due amount. To find out if you may have an offset, contact the agency(ies) you owe the debt to. Do not call the IRS because offsets are now made by the Treasury Department's Financial Management Service (FMS) and the IRS will no longer have nontax debt information. If there is an offset, you will receive a notice from FMS showing the amount of the offset and the agency receiving it.

Injured Spouse Claim

If you file a joint return and your spouse has not paid tax, child support, or a Federal nontax debt, such as a student loan, part or all of the overpayment on line 65 may be used (offset) to pay the past due amount. But your part of the overpayment may be refunded to you after the offset occurs if certain conditions apply and you complete and attach Form 8379. For details, use Tele-Tax topic 203 (see page 9) or see Form 8379.

Lines 66b Through 66d

Direct Deposit of Refund

Complete lines 66b through 66d if you want us to directly deposit the amount shown on line 66a into your account at a bank or other financial institution (such as a mutual fund, brokerage firm, or credit union) instead of sending you a check.

Why Use Direct Deposit?

- You get your refund fast—even faster if you e-file.
- Payment is more secure—there is no check to get lost.
- More convenient. No trip to the bank to deposit your check.
- Saves tax dollars. A refund by direct deposit costs less than a check.

TIP You can check with your financial institution to make sure your deposit will be accepted and get the correct routing and account numbers.

Line 66b

The routing number must be nine digits. If the first two digits are not 01 through 12 or 21 through 32, the direct deposit will be rejected and a check sent instead. On the sample check, the routing number is 250250025.

Your check may state that it is payable through a bank different from the financial institution at which you have your checking account. If so, do not use the routing number on that check. Instead, contact your financial institution for the correct routing number to enter on this line.

Line 66d

The account number can be up to 17 characters (both numbers and letters). Include hyphens but omit spaces and special symbols. Enter the number from left to right and leave any unused boxes blank. On the sample check, the account number is 20202086. Be sure not to include the check number.

Caution: Some financial institutions will not allow a joint refund to be deposited into an individual account. The IRS is not responsible if a financial institution refuses a direct deposit.

Line 67

Applied to 1999 Estimated Tax

Enter on line 67 the amount, if any, of the overpayment on line 65 you want applied to your 1999 estimated tax. We will apply this amount to your account unless you attach a statement requesting us to apply it to your spouse's account. Include your spouse's social security number. This election to apply part or all of the amount overpaid to your 1999 estimated tax cannot be changed later.

Amount You Owe

Line 68

Amount You Owe

TIP You do not have to pay if line 68 is under $1.

Include any estimated tax penalty from line 69 in the amount you enter on line 68.

Make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury" for the full amount due. Do not send cash. Write "1998 Form 1040" and your name, address, daytime phone number, and social security number (SSN) on your payment. If you are filing a joint return, enter the SSN shown first on your tax return.

Then, please complete Form 1040-V following the instructions on that form and enclose it in the envelope with your payment.

TIP If you are filing a joint return, make sure that the names and SSNs on Form 1040-V are shown in the same order as they appear on Form 1040, to ensure that your payment is processed correctly.

Do not include any estimated tax payment in your check or money order. Mail any estimated tax payment in an envelope separate from the one you use to pay the tax due on Form 1040.

TIP You may need to (a) increase the amount of income tax withheld from your pay or (b) make estimated tax payments for 1999. See Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1999 on page 46.

Installment Payments

If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 68 when you file, you may ask to make monthly installment payments. However, you will be charged interest and may be charged a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by April 15, 1999, even if your request to pay in installments is granted. You must also pay a fee. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file. But before requesting an installment agreement, you should consider other less costly alternatives, such as a bank loan.

To ask for an installment agreement, use Form 9465. You should receive a response to your request for installments within 30 days. But if you file your return after March 31, it may take us longer to reply.

Need More Information or Forms? You can use a personal computer, fax, or phone to get what you need. See page 6.

Line 69

Estimated Tax Penalty

Caution: Beginning in 1998, you must include household employment taxes reported on line 55 to see if you owe the penalty if line 57 is more than zero or you would owe the penalty even if you did not include those taxes. But if you entered an amount on Schedule H, line 7, include the total of that amount plus the amount on Form 1040, line 55.

You may owe this penalty if:

- Line 68 is at least $1,000 and it is more than 10% of the tax shown on your return, or
- You did not pay enough estimated tax by any of the due dates. This is true even if you are due a refund.

For most people, the "tax shown on your return" is the amount on line 56 minus the total of any amounts shown on lines 59a and 60 and Forms 8828, 4137, 4136, and 5329 (Parts III, IV, V, VI and VII only).

Exceptions to the Penalty

You will not owe the penalty if your 1997 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months AND either of the following applies:

1. You had no tax liability for 1997 and you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 1997, or
2. The total of lines 57, 58, and 62 on your 1998 return is at least as much as the tax liability shown on your 1997 return. Your estimated tax payments for 1998 must have been made on time and for the required amount.

Figuring the Penalty

If the Exceptions above do not apply and you choose to figure the penalty yourself, see Form 2210 (or 2210-F for farmers and fishermen) to find out if you owe the penalty. If so, you can use the form to figure the amount. In certain situations, you may be able to lower your penalty. For details, see the Instructions for Form 2210 (or 2210-F). Enter the penalty on Form 1040, line 69. Add the penalty to any tax due and enter the total on line 68. If you are due a refund, subtract the penalty from the overpayment you show on line 65. Do not file Form 2210 with your return unless Form 2210 indicates that you must do so. Instead, keep it for your records.

Because Form 2210 is complicated, if you want to, you can leave line 69 blank and the IRS will figure the penalty and send you a bill. We will not charge you interest on the penalty if you pay by the date specified on the bill.

Sign Your Return

Form 1040 is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse must also sign. If you have someone prepare your return, you are still responsible for the correctness of the return. If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, see Death of a Taxpayer on page 46.

Child's Return

If your child cannot sign the return, either parent may sign the child's name in the space provided. Then, add "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Daytime Phone Number

Providing your daytime phone number may help speed the processing of your return if we have a question that can be answered over the phone. However, you do not have to enter your number. If you are filing a joint return, you may enter either your or your spouse's daytime phone number.

Paid Preparers Must Sign Your Return

Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it by hand in the space provided. Signature stamps or labels cannot be used. The preparer must give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Assemble Your Return

Assemble any schedules and forms behind Form 1040 in order of the "Attachment Sequence No." shown in the upper right corner of the schedule or form. Put any forms without an attachment sequence number next. If you have supporting statements, arrange them in the same order as the forms or schedules they support and attach them last. Do not attach correspondence or other items unless required to do so. Attach the first copy or Copy B of Form(s) W-2 to the front of Form 1040.

How To Avoid Common Mistakes

Mistakes may delay your refund or result in notices being sent to you.

1. Be sure to enter your social security number (SSN) in the space provided on page 1 of Form 1040. If you are married filing a joint or separate return, also enter your spouse's SSN. Be sure to enter your SSN in the space next to your name.
2. Make sure you entered the correct SSN for each dependent you claim on line 6c.
3. Check your math, especially for the earned income credit, taxable social security benefits, deduction for exemptions, taxable income, total income, total tax, Federal income tax withheld, and refund or amount you owe.
4. Remember to sign and date Form 1040 and enter your occupation.
5. Make sure your name and address are correct on the peel-off label. If not, enter the correct information.
6. If you are taking the standard deduction and you checked any box on line 35a or you (or your spouse if filing jointly) can be claimed as a dependent on someone's return, see page 30 to be sure you entered the correct amount on line 36.
7. If you (or your spouse if you check the box on line 6b) were age 65 or older or blind, be sure you checked the appropriate boxes on line 35a.
8. If you are married filing jointly and did not get a peel-off label, enter your and your spouse's name in the same order as shown on your last return.
9. Attach your W-2 form(s) and other required forms and schedules. Put all forms and schedules in the proper order. See Assemble Your Return on this page.
10. If you owe tax, be sure to include all the required information on your payment. See the instructions for line 68 on page 44 for details.

General Information

What Are Your Rights as a Taxpayer?

You have the right to be treated fairly, professionally, promptly, and courteously by IRS employees. Our goal at the IRS is to protect your rights so that you will have the highest confidence in the integrity, efficiency, and fairness of our tax system. To ensure that you always receive such treatment, you should know about the many rights you have at each step of the tax process. For details, see Pub. 1.

Innocent Spouse Relief

You may qualify for relief from liability for tax on a joint return if (1) there is an understatement of tax because your spouse omitted income or claimed false deductions or credits, (2) you are divorced, separated, or no longer living with your spouse, or (3) given all the facts and circumstances, it would be unfair to hold you liable for the tax. See Form 8857 or Pub. 971 for more details.

Income Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax Payments for 1999

If the amount you owe or the amount you overpaid is large, you may want to file a new Form W-4 with your employer to change the amount of income tax withheld from your 1999 pay. In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1999 Form 1040 will show a tax refund or a tax balance due the IRS of less than $1,000. If your total estimated tax (including any household employment taxes or alternative minimum tax) for 1999 is $1,000 or more, see Form 1040-ES. It has a worksheet you can use to see if you have to make estimated tax payments. For more details, see Pub. 505.

Do Both the Name and SSN on Your Tax Forms Agree With Your Social Security Card?

If not, your refund may be delayed or you may not receive credit for your social security earnings. If your Form W-2, Form 1099, or other tax document shows an incorrect SSN or name, notify your employer or the form-issuing agent as soon as possible to make sure your earnings are credited to your social security record. If the name or SSN on your social security card is incorrect, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213.

How Do You Make a Gift To Reduce the Public Debt?

If you wish to do so, make a check payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." You can send it to: Bureau of the Public Debt, Department G, Washington, DC 20239-0601. Or, you can enclose the check with your income tax return when you file. Do not add your gift to any tax you may owe. If you owe tax, make a separate check for that amount payable to the "United States Treasury."

If you itemize your deductions for 1999, you may be able to deduct this gift.

Address Change

If you move after you file, always notify in writing the Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed your last return, or the Chief, Customer Service Division, at your local IRS district office. You can use Form 8822 to notify us of your new address. If you are expecting a refund, also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help forward your check to your new address.

How Long Should Records Be Kept?

Keep a copy of your tax return, worksheets you used, and records of all items appearing on it (such as W-2 and 1099 forms) until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually, this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, see Pub. 552.

Amended Return

File Form 1040X to change a return you already filed. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. But you may have more time to file Form 1040X if you are physically or mentally unable to manage your financial affairs. See Pub. 556 for details.

Need a Copy of Your Tax Return?

If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506. If you have questions about your account, call or write your local IRS office. If you want a printed copy of your account, it will be mailed to you free of charge.

Death of a Taxpayer

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 1998, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund. The person who files the return should enter "DECEASED," the deceased taxpayer's name, and the date of death across the top of the return.

If your spouse died in 1998 and you did not remarry in 1998, you can file a joint return. You can also file a joint return if your spouse died in 1999 before filing a 1998 return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1998 income before death and your income for all of 1998. Enter "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign.

The surviving spouse or personal representative should promptly notify all payers of income, including financial institutions, of the taxpayer's death. This will ensure the proper reporting of income earned by the taxpayer's estate or heirs. A deceased taxpayer's social security number should not be used for tax years after the year of death, except for estate tax return purposes.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Taxpayer

If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, you only need to file the tax return to claim the refund. If you are a court-appointed representative, file the return and attach a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased taxpayer's refund must file the return and attach Form 1310.

to have errors therefore lessening your chances of receiving a letter from the IRS. Here's how you can participate with IRS e-file:

Use an Authorized IRS e-file Provider

Many tax professionals file returns electronically for their clients. You can prepare your own return and have a professional transmit it electronically or you can have your return both prepared AND transmitted electronically. Look for the "AUTHORIZED IRS e-file PROVIDER" sign. Tax professionals may charge a fee to e-file your return and fees may vary depending on the professional and the specific services requested.

This year, if you owe money with your return, you may take advantage of paying your balance due electronically. This option allows you to file your return electronically now and authorize the debit of your bank account on the date you select—any time up to April 15th.

Use a Personal Computer

If you have a modem, personal computer, and tax preparation software, you can e-file your tax return from the convenience of your home. Tax preparation software is available at your local computer retailer or through various web sites over the Internet. Through a tax return transmitter, you can file 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A tax return transmitter may charge a fee for transmitting your return.

Check out the IRS web site at www.irs.ustreas.gov for a list of companies who participate in this IRS e-file program. You can also find a listing of partnerships that the IRS has entered into with private sector companies to provide low-cost IRS e-file options. Visit a VITA/TCE Site

The IRS offers FREE Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) programs. Many of these sites also offer IRS e-file. See this page for details on these programs.

Ask Your Employer or Financial Institution

Some businesses offer IRS e-file FREE to their employees as a benefit. Others offer it for a fee to customers. Ask your employer or financial institution if they offer electronic filing. If they don't, why not suggest that they offer it as a benefit or service?

Use a Phone

For millions of eligible taxpayers, TeleFile is the easiest way to file. The call only takes about 10 minutes! It allows taxpayers to file simple Federal tax returns using a touch-tone telephone. It's completely paperless. Eligible taxpayers will automatically receive the TeleFile Tax Package in the mail. Parents!: If your children receive a TeleFile Tax Package, please encourage them to use TeleFile!

Assistance With Your Return

IRS offices can help you prepare your return. An assister will explain a Form 1040EZ, 1040A, or 1040 with Schedules A and B to you and other taxpayers in a group setting. You may also be able to file your return electronically by computer free of charge at some IRS offices. To find the IRS office nearest you, look in the phone book under "United States Government, Internal Revenue Service" or call us. See page 11 for the number.

Help With Unresolved Tax Issues

Most problems can be solved with one contact either by calling, writing, or visiting an IRS office. But if you have tried unsuccessfully to resolve a problem with the IRS, you should contact the Taxpayer Advocate's Problem Resolution Program (PRP). Someone at PRP will assign you a personal advocate who is in the best position to try to resolve your problem. The Taxpayer Advocate can also offer you special help if you have a significant hardship as a result of a tax problem.

You should contact the Taxpayer Advocate if:

- You have tried unsuccessfully to resolve your problem with the IRS and have not been contacted by the date promised, or
- You are on your second attempt to resolve a problem.

You may contact a Taxpayer Advocate by calling a new toll-free assistance number, 1-877-777-4778. People with access to TTY/TDD equipment may call 1-800-829-4059 and ask for the Taxpayer Advocate. If you prefer, you can write to the Taxpayer Advocate at the IRS office that last contacted you.

While Taxpayer Advocates cannot change the tax law or make a technical tax decision, they can clear up problems that resulted from previous contacts and ensure that your case is given a complete and impartial review. Taxpayer Advocates are working to put service first. For more details, use TeleTax topic 104 (see page 9) or see Pub. 1546.

Interest and Penalties

You do not have to figure the amount of any interest or penalties you may owe. Because figuring these amounts can be complicated, we will do it for you if you want. We will send you a bill for any amount due.

If you include interest or penalties with your payment, identify and enter the amount in the bottom margin of Form 1040, page 2. Please do not include it in the amount you owe on line 68.

Interest

We will charge you interest on taxes not paid by their due date, even if an extension of time to file is granted. We will also charge you interest on penalties imposed for failure to file, negligence, fraud, substantial valuation misstatements, and substantial understatements of tax. Interest is charged on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions).

Penalties

Late Filing

If you do not file your return by the due date (including extensions), the penalty is usually 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, attach it to your return. The penalty cannot usually be more than 25% of the tax due. If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $100 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller.

Late Payment of Tax

If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the unpaid amount. It applies to any unpaid tax on the return. This penalty is in addition to interest charges on late payments.

Frivolous Return

In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filing a frivolous return. A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes altering or striking out the preprinted language above the space where you sign.

Other

Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. Criminal penalties may be imposed for willful failure to file, tax evasion, or making a false statement. See Pub. 17 for details on some of these penalties.

Disclosure, Privacy Act, and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, the Privacy Act of 1974, and Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 require that when we ask you for information we must first tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive it and whether your response is voluntary, required to obtain a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

This notice applies to all papers you file with us, including this tax return. It also applies to any questions we need to ask you so we can complete, correct, or process your return; figure your tax; and collect tax, interest, or penalties.

Our legal right to ask for information is Internal Revenue Code sections 6001, 6011, and 6012(a) and their regulations. They say that you must file a return or statement with us for any tax you are liable for. Your response is mandatory under these sections. Code section 6109 requires that you provide your social security number or individual taxpayer identification number on what you file. This is so we know who you are, and can process your return and other papers. You must fill in all parts of the tax form that apply to you. But you do not have to check the boxes for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund or provide your daytime telephone number.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books and records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law.

We ask for tax return information to carry out the tax laws of the United States. We need it to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

If you do not file a return, do not provide the information we ask for, or provide fraudulent information, you may be charged penalties and be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments shown on the tax return. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as stated in Code section 6103. However, Code section 6103 allows or requires the Internal Revenue Service to disclose or give the information shown on your tax return to others as described in the Code. For example, we may disclose your tax information to the Department of Justice, to enforce the tax laws, both civil and criminal, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, U.S. commonwealths or possessions, and certain foreign governments to carry out their tax laws. We may disclose your tax information to the Department of Treasury and contractors for tax administration purposes; and to other persons as necessary to obtain information which we cannot get in any other way in order to determine the amount of or to collect the tax you owe. We may disclose your tax information to the Comptroller General of the United States to permit the Comptroller General to review the Internal Revenue Service. We may also disclose your tax information to Committees of Congress; Federal, state, and local child support agencies; and to other Federal agencies for the purposes of determining entitlement for benefits or the eligibility for and the repayment of loans.

Please keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask you for other information. If you have questions about the rules for filing and giving information, please call or visit any Internal Revenue Service office.

The Time It Takes To Prepare Your Return

We try to create forms and instructions that can be easily understood. Often this is difficult to do because our tax laws are very complex. For some people with income mostly from wages, filling in the forms is easy. For others who have businesses, pensions, stocks, rental income, or other investments, it is more difficult.

We Welcome Comments on Forms

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of the time estimates shown below or suggestions for making these forms simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can e-mail us your suggestions and comments through the IRS Internet Home Page (www.irs.ustreas.gov) or write to the Tax Forms Committee, Western Area Distribution Center, Rancho Cordova, CA 95743-0001. DO NOT send your return to this address. Instead, see the back cover.

Estimated Preparation Time

The time needed to complete and file Form 1040 and its schedules will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average times are:

Major Categories of Federal Income and Outlays for Fiscal Year 1997

On or before the first Monday in February of each year, the President is required by law to submit to the Congress a budget proposal for the fiscal year that begins the following October. The budget plan sets forth the President's proposed receipts, spending, and the surplus or deficit for the Federal government. The plan includes recommendations for new legislation as well as recommendations to change, eliminate, and add programs. After receipt of the President's proposal, the Congress reviews the proposal and makes changes. It first passes a budget resolution setting its own targets for receipts, outlays, and the surplus or deficit. Individual spending and revenue bills are then enacted consistent with the goals of the budget resolution.

In fiscal year 1997 (which began on October 1, 1996, and ended on September 30, 1997), Federal income was 1,579 billion and outlays were $1,601 billion, leaving a deficit of $22 billion.

Federal Income

Income and social insurance taxes are, by far, the largest source of receipts. In 1997, individuals paid $737 billion in income taxes and corporations paid $182 billion. Social security and other insurance and retirement contributions were $539 billion. Excise taxes were $57 billion. The remaining $63 billion of receipts were from Federal Reserve deposits, customs duties, estate and gift taxes, and other miscellaneous receipts.

Federal Outlays

About 99% of total outlays were financed by tax receipts and the remaining 1% was financed by borrowing. Government receipts and borrowing finance a wide range of public services. The following is the breakdown of total Federal outlays for fiscal year 1997*:

1. Social security, Medicare, and other retirement: $632 billion. These programs were about 38% of total outlays. They provide income support for the retired and disabled and medical care for the elderly.

2. National defense, veterans, and foreign affairs: $325 billion. About 16% of total outlays were to equip, modernize, and pay our armed forces and to fund other national defense activities; about 2% went for veterans benefits and services; and about 1% went for international activities, including military and economic assistance to foreign countries and the maintenance of U.S. embassies abroad.

3. Net interest: $244 billion. About 15% of total outlays were for net interest payments on the public debt.

4. Physical, human, and community development: $123 billion. About 7% of total outlays were for agriculture; natural resources and environmental programs; transportation programs; aid for elementary and secondary education and direct assistance to college students; job training programs; deposit insurance, commerce and housing credit, and community development; and space, energy, and general science programs.

5. Social programs: $294 billion. The Federal Government spent 12% of total outlays to fund Medicaid, food stamps, temporary assistance for needy families, supplemental security income, and related programs. 6% was spent for health research and public health programs, unemployment compensation, assisted housing, and social services.

6. Law enforcement and general government: $29 billion. About 2% of total outlays were for judicial activities, Federal law enforcement, and prisons; and to provide for the general costs of the Federal Government, including the collection of taxes and legislative activities.

Note: Detail may not add to total due to rounding.

Income and Outlays. These pie charts show the relative sizes of the major categories of Federal income and outlays for fiscal year 1997.

* The percentages on this page exclude undistributed offsetting receipts, which were -$50 billion in fiscal year 1997. In the budget, these receipts are offset against spending in figuring the outlay totals shown above. These receipts are for the U.S. Government's share of its employee retirement programs, rents and royalties on the Outer Continental Shelf, and proceeds from the spectrum auction.
